	Acknowledgments .....	ix
	Preface .....	xi
	Rusty, a Lesson in Sensory Behavior.....	xii
	Our Philosophy on Behavior.....	xv
Chapter 1	Is It Sensory or Is It Behavior? .....	1
	Is It Behavior?.....	1
	Is It Sensory?.....	2
	Why Is It Important to Know the Difference?.....	3
	Chaos Theory.....	4
	Our Mission.....	5
	Our Philosophy.....	6
	Our Approach to Behavioral Intervention.....	8
Chapter 2	Sensory Integration and Sensory Processing Disorders .....	11
	Sensory Integration.....	12
	What is Sensory Integration?.....	12
	The Senses.....	13
	Integration of Senses.....	14
	Sensory Processing Disorders.....	15
	Identifying Sensory Processing Disorders.....	16
	Sensory Stimulus Dysfunctions.....	16
	Central Processing Disorders.....	22
	Evaluating a Child With Sensory Integrative Problems.....	32
Chapter 3	Deviations in Development: The Impact on Behavior .....	35
	How Learning Occurs in Development.....	35
	Infants.....	35
	Toddlers.....	37
	School-Age Children.....	38
	Behavioral Problems Seen in Infants, Toddlers, and Older Children.....	38
	Social Interaction.....	38
	Communication.....	39
	Summary.....	44
Chapter 4	Basic Concepts: Analyzing Behaviors .....	45
	Children Behave for Reasons: Primary Cause.....	45

	What Promoted the Behavior? The Antecedent . . . . .	46
	Environmental Influences on Behavior. . . . .	48
	Events That Affect the Child. . . . .	48
	Analyzing Behavior Checklist . . . . .	49
	Defining Behaviors . . . . .	53
	Warning Signs . . . . .	53
	Prioritizing the Need for Change . . . . .	54
	Determining What to do With the Behavior: Stop, Alter, Limit, Treat, Ignore . . . . .	55
	Consequences to the Behavior . . . . .	57
	What is a Reinforcer? . . . . .	58
	Learned Behaviors. . . . .	61
	Summary: Important Concepts. . . . .	62
Chapter 5	Sensory: Analyzing the Behavior . . . . .	63
	Forming a Hypothesis or Theory and Developing a Plan . . . . .	63
	Obtaining Behaviors . . . . .	63
	Basic Intervention Principles—Sensory Obtaining Behaviors. . . . .	73
	Avoidance Behaviors . . . . .	74
	Basic Intervention Principles—Sensory Avoidance Behaviors. . . . .	79
	Basic Intervention Principles—Systemic Avoidance Behaviors. . . . .	80
Chapter 6	Analyzing Behaviors That Are Not Sensory . . . . .	83
	Obtaining Behaviors—Social/Communication Behaviors . . . . .	83
	Basic Intervention Principles—Attention Seeking Behaviors . . . . .	86
	Basic Intervention Principles—Need, Want, Object, or Activity . . . . .	89
	Avoidance or Escape Behaviors—Communication . . . . .	92
	Basic Intervention Principles—Attention, People, or Events. . . . .	92
	Basic Intervention Principles—Task, Object, or Activity. . . . .	97
Chapter 7	Environmental Intervention Techniques . . . . .	101
	Engineering the Environment . . . . .	101
	Small or Subdivided Room . . . . .	102
	Noise and Sound Levels . . . . .	103
	Visual Distractions . . . . .	106
	Task Presentation . . . . .	108
	Other Sensory Distractions. . . . .	110
	Emotional Environment . . . . .	110
	Maximize Strategies and Systems . . . . .	111
Chapter 8	Behavioral Intervention Techniques . . . . .	117
	Why Use Behavioral Intervention Strategies? . . . . .	117
	Intervene Before the Challenging Behavior Occurs . . . . .	117
	What Behavior Do You Want to Occur? . . . . .	118

	Reinforcers.....	121
	Use Time-Outs Constructively.....	126
	Use Positive Behavioral Momentum.....	128
	Use of Prompts to Facilitate Desired Behavior.....	128
	Demonstration and Modeling.....	132
	Summary of Behavioral Strategies.....	135
Chapter 9	Handling Temper Tantrums and Challenging Behaviors.....	137
	Tantrums: Eighteen Months to Three Years.....	137
	Avoiding Tantrums.....	138
	Handling a Temper Tantrum.....	140
	After the Tantrum Resolves.....	141
	More Aggressive Tantrums and Behaviors.....	142
	Avoid the Tantrum.....	142
	Handling the Tantrum.....	144
	Anticipating the Challenging Behavior.....	147
	Working Together as a Team.....	148
	Summary.....	149
Chapter 10	Sensory Diets.....	151
	Obtaining Normal Levels of Attention, Arousal, and Effort.....	151
	Sensory Diets.....	152
	Teach the Child Self-Regulation.....	154
	Develop an Action Plan.....	155
	The Underaroused Child.....	156
	The Overaroused Child.....	157
	Fluctuating Arousal.....	162
	Oral-Motor Activities: Related to Sensory Diets.....	163
	Setting Up a Sensory Diet.....	166
	Sensory Integrative Treatments.....	167
Chapter 11	Case Study: Adam’s School Behavior.....	169
Chapter 12	Case Study: Grace.....	175
	Mary M. Murray, Ed.D.
	Behavior 1.....	176
	Behavior 2.....	178
	Behavior 3.....	180
Appendix A	.....	193
	Characteristics of Underresponsiveness to Tactile and Proprioceptive Input: Tactile Discrimination Difficulties.....	193
	Intervention for Tactile Discrimination Disorders.....	196
Appendix B	.....	197

	Intervention for Tactile Defensiveness . . . . .	197
	Tactile Defensiveness: Intervention Strategies for Common Problems . . . . .	199
	Gravitational Insecurity: Common Problems and Intervention Strategies . . . . .	203
	Auditory Defensiveness: Common Problems and Intervention Strategies . . . . .	204
Appendix C	Stereotypic and Disruptive Behaviors . . . . .	205
Appendix D	Analyzing Behavior Worksheet . . . . .	207
Appendix E	Intervention for Challenging Behaviors . . . . .	211
	References . . . . .	217
